

Operation Identification

Marking personal property with a unique number allows for positive identification if items are lost or stolen. Citizens who mark their property have a greater chance of recovering it. Usually a driver's license number and state abbreviation is used. Do not use your social security number.

You can check out an engraver at any Central Arkansas Library or Neighborhood Alert Center

The City of Little Rock
Police Department
Public Affairs Div.
Neighborhood Watch Program
&
Housing and Neighborhood Programs Department
Neighborhood Alert Centers

In Partnership with

Arkansas Democrat  Gazette
Arkansas' Longest Newspaper