SYNOPSIS	A resolution to amend Resolution No. 15,892 (February 7, 2023), and authorize to the City Manager to modify the contract with Insight Public Sector Sled Center for the purchase of fifty (50) additional cameras for the Little Rock Police Department Real Time Crime Center.
FISCAL IMPACT	The amount of this project is $160,772.40, plus applicable taxes and fees, for a total revised contract amount of $376,566.15. The agreement will be paid from ARPA Funding set aside for the Real Time Crime Center Account No. 27159-60200-G0222AR52A.
RECOMMENDATION	Approval of the resolution
BACKGROUND	Falcon cameras have consistently been identified as a critical aspect of any functional Real Time Crime Center, and are extremely useful in helping to identify specific suspect vehicles involved in criminal activity. The Falcon LRP Cameras exceeded expectation and suit the needs of the Real Time Crime Center. Staff has determined that expansion of the current Flock Camera footprint will result in even higher success rates.

BACKGROUND
CONTINUED

The advanced search features will allow staff to more effectively identify potential suspect vehicles involved in criminal activity within the City of Little Rock. The purchase will be made utilizing the OMINA Partners Contract, No. 4400006644.
